The Significance of Location and Ritual:

The Tabernacle's design itself was meticulously planned, each element possessing symbolic weight. The outer court, open to all, signified the worldly realm. The , the inner sanctuary, held the candelabra, the bread table, and the perfume altar. Access was confined to the officials, underscoring the sacredness of this area. The perfume played a vital role, signifying the raising of prayers to heaven, a tangible manifestation of trust.

The {Holy of Holies|, the innermost sanctuary, was reserved for the High Priest alone, and only once a year on the Day of Atonement.
